

Growing Plants

Growing plants

A plant is a living organism in which different parts, such as the leaf, stem and root, work together.

Each structure performs a certain function or job and they all need to work correctly to make the plant grow well.

What can we learn about the function of leaves and how they make a plant grow well?

Growing plants

Growing plants

Growing plants

Growing plants

Growing plants

Growing plants

Growing plants

