

Worksheet One

This worksheet accompanies Clauses and Sentences Unit One.

Is it a clause?

Identify whether each set of words is a clause. Remember that there are two types of clauses: independent and subordinate.

	Clause	Not a clause
the bright red balloon
because I am tired
football is the best sport
after chilling out
I've got math next
where I went on vacation
on top of the table

Now sort the clauses into independent and subordinate:

Independent	Subordinate

Worksheet Two

This worksheet accompanies Clauses and Sentences Unit One.

Subject, verb, object revision

Identify whether each underlined word in the sentence is the subject (S), main verb (V) or the object (O). Circle the correct answer.

I love swimming in the sea. S V O

Caroline eats lots of chocolate. S V O

Tom watches too much television. S V O

On Saturday morning, I went fishing with my dad. S V O

We are eating pizza for dinner. S V O

Amir fell off his bike. S V O

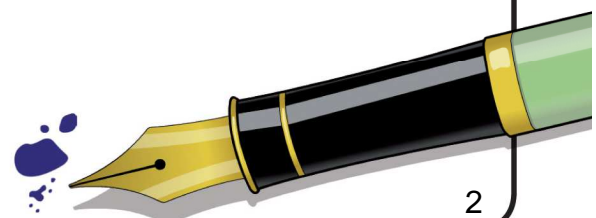

The light faded suddenly from the bright blue sky. S V O

Can I have the last cookie? S V O

Nicola was annoyed with her best friend. S V O

This homework is really hard. S V O

Now, take three different colored pens and then underline all of the verbs in the sentences in the first color, all of the subjects in the second color and all of the objects in the third color.

Worksheet Three

This worksheet accompanies Clauses and Sentences
Unit One.

Is it a simple sentence?

Identify whether each set of words is a simple sentence.

Remember: a simple sentence must contain a subject and a main verb and must make sense on its own.

	Simple Sentence	Not a Simple Sentence
My mom baked a cake.
Jenny lied.
Under the piano.
When The Simpsons is on.
I'm so hungry.
The deep blue sea.
Beneath the dark starless sky, we wandered alone through the forest.
Go to your room!
I prefer salt and vinegar potato chips.

