

Worksheet One

This worksheet accompanies Clauses and Sentences Unit Three.

Relative clauses

Can you add independent clauses to these relative clauses to make them into complete sentences?

_____ that I had this morning _____

_____ whose book I borrowed _____

_____ whatever she said _____

_____ whoever he is _____ _____ which she wanted to go to _____

Worksheet Two

This worksheet accompanies Clauses and Sentences Unit Three.

Adding relative clauses

Complete these complex sentences using the relative clauses below.

1. The pink top, _____, is so ugly!
2. My sister is really cool and is a fashion designer, _____
_____.
3. My friend _____
has invited me over after school today.
4. Is that the book _____?

whose parents have an indoor pool which is what I want to be that you said I should read which is covered in red spots

Worksheet Three

This worksheet accompanies Clauses and Sentences Unit Three.

Adverbial or relative?

Is the underlined clause an adverbial or a relative clause?

| | Adverbial | Relative |
|---|-----------|----------|
| The flight that we were supposed to take was cancelled. | | |
| Danny wants to go to New York because his best friend lives there . | | |
| If you don't finish your homework , you can't watch TV. | | |
| The digital radio, which I just got as a birthday present , is already broken. | | |
| Please turn the volume up so that I can hear it too . | | |
| Since she got her license , my sister has been driving me everywhere. | | |
| The speaker in assembly, whoever he or she is , will be boring! | | |
| Paris, which is in France , is a very romantic city. | | |
| I want to travel the world while I'm young . | | |

Worksheet Four

This worksheet accompanies Clauses and Sentences Unit Three.

Adding subordinate clauses

Rewrite the paragraph and add some relative and adverbial clauses to make the paragraph more exciting.

The referee blew his whistle. The other team took possession of the ball and ran towards our goal. Our goalie blocked their offense and kicked the ball to me. I ran towards their goal and then I passed the ball to my friend. She kicked the ball into their penalty area. I headed the ball into the goal – I scored!

Worksheet Five

This worksheet accompanies Clauses and Sentences Unit Three.

Adding commas to complex sentences

Can you punctuate these sentences correctly? Draw a comma wherever you think it is needed in the following sentences:

1. Before you start criticizing me take a look at yourself!
2. My little brother even though I have told him not to keeps going into my room and stealing my stuff!
3. David paid the bill after finishing his meal.
4. Helen who suddenly realized her mistake quickly turned the car around.
5. Because no one noticed the storm coming in the ship sank.
6. I had no idea Keesha and Matt had broken up until you told me about it.

